Clinton Theological Seminary (Clinton, Missouri)

(000019)

Scope and Content

Clinton Theological Seminary, originally called Clinton German Seminary, operated from 1910 to 1925. It succeeded the German Training Department of Union College which opened in 1891. The school's mission was to educate German-speaking ministers in order to enable German immigrants in the Midwest to worship in their native language.

This collection contains college annuals for the years 1920, 1922, 1923, and 1924.

Arrangement

The arrangement of the collection has been done by the Union College Library Heritage Room.

Provenance

These annuals were a gift from the Center for Adventist Research at Andrews University.

Use

All users of this collection will complete the [Application to Use Unpublished Records], and observe the regulation specified in the [Patron's Agreement] and [Researcher's Code of Conduct]. All records in this collection are open and available for research. Suggested citation for this collection:
